Re: Jane Gibson

Interview with: Lt. Hebner, of the Trenton Police.

Operative went to Police Headquarters at 12 P.M. and there interviewed Lt. Hebner, who is the police officer that accompanied Mrs. Gibson to Buck County Penn.

Lt. Hebner states that at one time (he could not remember how long ago), Capt. Dettmar, who was then in charge, told him to get into civilian clothes and go to #338 South Broad Street and to accompany the woman to wherever she wanted to go. He did not know where he was going or why and those were all the orders he received.

That when he arrived at 338 South Broad St. Mrs. Gibson was waiting for him with a horse and buggy and they rode to some place in Pennsylvania (he could not remember where) and they stopped at a house, which she entered and remained therein for about 20 minutes and when she came out they proceeded back to Trenton. He did not know what she was doing or why she made the trip or why he was ordered to go with her. While riding with her she did not speak more than ten words to him.

Lt. Hebner gave me Capt. Dettmar's address on Parent Ave., White Horse and stated that he is now retired from the department. Operative will interview him to-morrow.

Lt. Hebner also gave the following names: Mr. Freudenmacher, 491 South Broad Street and County Detective Schackley at the County Court House.

Respectfully submitted:
